PHILADELPHIA, April 21.—The game here this afternoon between the Phillies and Washington opened the championship season in this city, and the public turned out nearly 15,000 strong in honor of the occasion. The result of the game was most satisfactory to the big crowd, as the home team won in a canter. Esper, who held the Phillies down to six hits on Thursday, was in the points for the visitors, but the left-handed twirler just lasted two innings when Mercer was substi-

Such slugging as was seen in the Phillies' second inning has seldom been witnessed in this city. Out of the six runs scored five were earned. When the smoke had cleared five two-baggers and a home run were set down against Mr. Esper. It was a splendid exhibition of hitting the ball and sufficient to retire Esper to the bench. Mercer did well, but the game was already gone and his good work went for paught. Even Sam Thompson, who never could hit Esper before, got in a couple of solid whacks and obtained revenge a couple of solid whacks and obtained revenge for previous futile efforts.

Carsey did the pitching for the home team and held the Senators down to three hits, but he gave nine bases on balls. Several of these came together in the sixth inning, when Washington scored two runs, all they made in the game, Abbey singled to left, and after Mercer had filed out to Thompson, Car-sey gave three bases on balls in succession, forcing in the first run. Sullivan then made a seratch hit, scoring McGuire. Radford left three men on bases by flying out to Allen. three men on bases by flying out to Allen.

The Phillies fielded superbly and made a fine impression by their clean work, the spectators being liberal in applause. The defeat of Thursday has been wiped out in the memories of the fans by the victories of Friday and the defeat of the fans by the victories of Friday and

St. Louis Team Went to Pieces When

Pittsburg Drew Ahead. Sr. Louis, Mo., April 21,-One thousand six hundred and eighty-nine "Fans" shivered in the grand stand and bleachers to-day to see the Pittsburgs do up the Browns. The game was close up to the fifth inning, when a decision by the umptre holding Donovan safe on second disheartened the Browns, who went to pieces at once. The score:

New York, April 21.—Never in the history of baseball in this city has so brilliant an assemblage watched a struggle for supremacy on the diamond as was present at Easter Park to-day to see the Brooklyns and Bostons play the opening championship game of the season. That baseball has again come to be the popular amusement was clearly shown by the turnstile count of an attendance of 19,200. The grand stand was jammed, as were the covered stand and bleachers, while the overflow stood packed against the ropes which encircled the outfield. The only disappointment was that the Bridegrooms were whitewashed. At no time during the game did they have a chance to win. Park to-day to see the Brooklyns and Boston washed. At no time during the game dut they have a chance to win.

Long, Lowe, and Tucker made three brilliant double plays. The other features were the fielding of Treadway and Bannon and the batting of Corcoran, Nash, and Tucker. Nash knocked the ball over the left field fence for a home run. The secre:

EASY FOR GEORGETOWN.

Columbian University Met with a Bad Defeat at Baseball.

A young man named Dalzell faced the Georgetown sluggers at Capital Park yesterday afternoon, and when the latter got through Mr. Dalzell's delivery had been punnished for nineteen hits, including three homers, two triples, and one double, with the remainder all singles. It was an easy victory for Georgotown, and the Columbian Univer-sity boys were outclassed in every depart-ment of the national game. The team from over Rock creek put up a slashing good game, their batting and fleiding being both excellent. Little Hennon pitched good ball, letting the Columbians down for one run and four hits in the nine innings.

Carmody gave a pretty exhibition of fleid the party of the balls.

ing, making two circus catches of fly balls. Murphy also did finely at third, while Sullivan and Harley hit the sphere hard and often. Hennon made the circuit of the bases four times, and proved to be a good all-round player.

Greene and Bolway, of the Y. M. C. A. team, did the best work for the Columbians, while Shiller looked after second in good style. The only run made by Columbian University was the product of a base on balls to Hume, Laughlin's sacrifice, and singles by McCammon and Greene, Georgetown scored one or more runs in all but the fifth and eighth innings. In the ninth the unusual feat was accomplished of the entire Georgetown team secring nine runs before a man was put out. The score:

Pirst Contest in the District Played Yesterday at Chevy Chase.

MANY PASHIONABLES PRESENT

Capt. H. M. Earle Led the Defenders of the Reds to Victory Amid the Applause of the Spectators-Matches Will Be Played Every Saturday During the Season.

The first game of polo ever played in the District attracted a large number of the fashonables to the Chevy Chase Club grounds yesterday afternoon, and the new sport was most successfully introduced. One year ago H. M. Earle purchased a couple of ponies and interested several fellow members of the Chevy Chase Club in polo. The result was seen in the game yesterday, when the participants, mounted on ponies, gave a creditable exhibition, and from the enthusiasm displayed by the spectators their efforts were warmly appreciated.

There were four players on each side, known as the Reds and Blacks, the Reds being represented by H. M. Earle, captain, Collier, Marrow, and Halloway, and the Browns by Broome, captain, Ryder, Moore, and L. Earle. In addition to the ponies a ball and mallets comprise the paraphernalia of the game. Six periods of ten minutes each were occupied in play, with five-minute intervals for rest.

In the first periods the time expired without a goal, and the Blacks drew first blood in the second, when Moore made goal. Then the Beds tied the score, and the Blacks followed with another goal in the fourth period. Amid applause the Reds again tied the score in the fifth. The sixth and last period of play was hotly contested, the ball going from one end of the field to the other, the Reds finally scoring, thereby winning the game by 3 goals to 2.

Owing to the constant action the game is similar to a succession of pony races and necessarily interesting to onlockers. The Reds were greatly added in winning through the clever team work of Halloway and H. M. Earle. When one had the ball the other's interference was somewhat akin to football and was very successful.

was very successful.

As a result of the interest taken by the club

As a result of the interest taken by the club members regular games will be played every Saturday, and later on matches may be arranged with out-of-town clubs. Yesterday's contest was refereed by Capt. Edwards, U. S. A., who gave entire satisfaction.

CORBETT WELL RECEIVED.

America's Star Pugilist Made a Favorable LONDON, April 21.-James J. Corbett, chan pion pugilist of the world, made his first ap-pearance on the stage in England at Drury Lane theater this evening. The chample was greeted by a large audience, but there were many vacant seats in the pit and in the galleries, where the largest crowd was expected. The entrance of Mr. Corbett upon the stage was loudly cheered, and throughout the play the actor-puglist won considerable appliance.

the stage was loudly cheered, and throughout the play the actor-pugilist won considerable applease.

"Gentlemen Jack," however, was condemned generally as a play, but as a means of exhibiting the champion it was pronounced a decided success.

The punching bag scene was a positive and startling revelation to the British public. They were perfectly astounded at the clever display made by the champion and loudly demanded "encore," until the American kindly obliged the audience by a second exhibition of his skill at bag-punching.

When Corbett appeared, stripped for battle, in the last act, his form and appearance called forth loud demonstrations of approval, and at the end of the act he was called before the curtain amid cries of "speech."

The critics who passed opinions upon Corbett this evening after having seen him in the training scene and stripped in the last act are unanimous in the opinion that he is probably the most perfectly trained and skillful boxer ever before the public, and nobody wonders that Mitchell suffered defeat at his hands.

STEINITZ BEATEN AT CHESS.

AFFAIRS IN INDIAN TERRITORY. Senate Committee Sent to Investigate Re-turns With Information.

Senators Teller and Platt, of the Senate ommittee which was sent to Indian territory two weeks ago to investigate the relations of the Indians and the white cettlers, have returned and were in their seats yesterday. Speaking of the condition of affairs in the territory, Senator Teller said it was very unsatisfactory, and that he had told the Indians that he should recommend to Congress that a change be made. He says that in some parts change be made. He says that in some parts of the territory there are ten white persons to one Indian and that the whites have no rights of citizenship at all. They are not even permitted to send their children to the Indian schools, which outside of the towns are the only schools, and justice is very locsely administered, owing to the system which prevals. He told them that it they had not invited the whites to the territory they could have continued their present system, but with the whites there at their invitation something would have to be done for the improvement the whites there at their invitation something would have to be done for the improvement of their condition. Senator Teller favors the establishment of a government upon the lines of the ordinary territorial form of government, and thinks the lands should be divided in severalty among the Indians and a part of each man's boldings made innlicable, He also thinks that immediate steps should be taken to improve the court facilities.

THE DAY NEAR AT HAND

Mass Meeting of the Local Commonwealers Enthusiastically Attended.

GLADLY WELCOME THE ARMY

Coxey's Crowd Will Not Come Here Bearing Arms-Commonweal Song-Extra Precautions Being Made for Guarding the Treasury and the Capitol-More Police.

There was an enthusiastic meeting of the people in sympathy with the movement of the mmonweal last night at Coxey headquarers, corner Four-and-a-half street and Pennsylvania avenue northwest, to perfect arrangements for meeting and entertaining the rmy upon its arrival in the city. The hall was crowded.

The meeting was called to order by Col. A. E. Redstone, who requested the election of a chairman. A. M. Cook was selected, but he was not present, and Mr. J. R. Mahoney was unanimously elected to the chair. On the platform were the speakers of the evening, Mrs. Anna L. Diggs, Col. Redstone, Mr. Y. Dewitt, and ex-Congressman Wise, of Pennaylvania. An earnest opening address was made by John R. Maboney, in which he said that he was a Coxeyite only so far as any man would go out in his feelings toward another man in distress. He had great admiration and sympathy for this band of men crossing the mountains despite the severe snowstorms and ice, and favored the movement, inasmuch as the idea was to relieve the distress of thousands of persons all over the country. The people should exert their influence to have the army met with loaves of bread and not with fixed beyonets.

Col. Redstone said that arrangements had been made for music at the mass meetings, and introduced Mr. A. Tregana, who will be in charge. Then the audience sang the six verses of "The Commonweal Song," ending each verse with the rousing chorus:

"Hurrah! Hurrah! let Congress hear our plea," sylvania. An earnest opening address was

"Hurrah! Hurrah! let Congress hear our plea, Hurrah! Hurrah! the people now decree, Laws that speak for justice and for true humanity,

While truth is marching on to victory."

Mrs, Anna L. Diggs, of Kansas, then addressed the meeting. She compared the Coxey army to the body of men who marched on the Capitol yesterday. The difference between the two was that the men of yesterday were able to come in cars, wear good ciothes, and stop at hotels. They represented corporations or moneyed concerns, and asked for the passage of certain laws that would benefit the capitalists, while the Coxey band are tramping across the mountains, sleeping under the chilly canopy of heaven, and they ask legislation in the interest of the whole population to benefit every legitimate industry in the country, and not for any particular class. The men are coming not as Republicans or Democrats, but as American citizens, and if there are any thieves or tramps in the city the people will be protected by the Coxey men. manity, While truth is marching on to victory."

men. Mr. Roberts, of Tennessee, said that they Mr. Roberts, of Tennessee, said that they were there last night, not as citizens of Washington, but as representatives of the whole country. The movement is to carry out a relief principle for the people of this country, and Congress will not decide the question on which so much depends, but the people will. He made some decidedly emphatic remarks concerning the arrest of the Primrose men, and referred to Judge Kimball as the "shoemaker judge."

Ex-Congressman Wise, of Pennsylvania, said that the men who were coming were lieved that the men would be treated fairly.

The final speech was made by Mrs. Clara Colby, editor of the Woman's Tribune.

Committees were appointed as follows: On public comfort, G. O. Cook, P. J. White, J. DeWitt, P. J. Dougherty, P. J. Maddigan, T. H. Godney, Mrs. Goff, Mrs. Maitby, Mrs. Davis, Mrs. Woodard, Mrs. Diggs and Mr. and Mrs. Tragena; on reception and demonstration, G. W. Bell, J. J. Baring, A. A. Reagan, L. B. White, T. F. Fisher, Col. T. P. Roberts, R. J. Bell and M. J. Colbert; on permit and location, J. R. Mahoney, G. A. Cook, J. DeWitt, Mrs. Goff and Mrs. Clara Colby; to canvass labor organizations, S. Maitby, C. Colevass labor organizations, S. Malthy, C. Cole-man, Milford Spond, Mildred Hobbs and Mr.

Mr. G. A. Cook offered to pay rent for a suitable location for the encampment of the sminder location for the cheangement of the army. As soon as he made this offer he requested to have his name taken off the committee on permits and locations.

Representative Coffeen, of Wyoming, who is claimed as a supporter to the Coxeyites, occupied a seat on the platform.

M. J. De Witt donated the use of his sixhorse tally-ho, from the roof of which the coxed of the coach lands will be presented by gospel of the good roads will be preached by local enthusiasts at the street corners.

A resolution was adopted, to be sent to the House Committee on Military Affairs, to which the recommendation of Congressman Boen in regard to furnishing tents and encomponent grounds to the commonwealers, requesting that they report this resolution favorably to the House at once and take immediate action upon it.

Citizen Redstone leaves this merning to join Coxéy at Frederick.

TRAIN WILL TALK,

And Col. Redstone Talks About George Francis and His Coming Visit. Col. Albert E. Redstone was en evidence at Rechabite hall yesterday, as usual. As THE Times man entered the colonel was examining a big plug of tobacco with which he had just been presented, and to which was attached a card that bore this legend:

"For Col. Redatone. To keep the Coxey army nerves quiet. "They have bit off more than they can chew."

"Who have bitten off more than they can chew, the army or its antagonists?"
"No matter, but the Coxey boys say that the stuff chews all right."
"Any fresh news in relation to the move-

"Any fresh news in relation to the movement?"

"Yes, I have received word from Georgo
Francis train that he will come here and hire a large hall, in which the Coxeyites may bivouse free of cost. Train says that the Coxey commonweal is only the flying battalion of 4,600,600 American citizens with hungry stomachs. He claims that he turned on the psychic force that set the Coxey army in motion. He will deliver several speeches during his sojourn here."

"Colonel," said The Times man, "what ever became of the loaf of bread that was sent from Arkansas in care of President Cleveiand for the benefit of the Coxey army?"

"It is as yet in a mysterious hiding place.
The express company agreed to deliver it at the commonweal headquarters if not left in the care of the person to whom it was directed. It should be forwarded to its destination."

"Yes," spoke up one of the Coxeyites in the hall, "we want it that we may have it photographed and scatter the pictures of it all over the land as a souvenir of the movement." ment."

"Colonel," queried The Tries commissioner, "what of all this talk that trouble is being created for Coxey by the 'Unknown,' the 'Veiled Woman,' et al.?"

"Roi! Nothing in it! Plutocratic lies!" and the colonel left.

A Commonweal Song. The commonwealers issued a pamphlet of poems, or, rather, revolutionary ballads con-serning their course yesterday. The followng is a fair sample of these vigorous verses BATTLE HYMN OF LABOR. [By Hasaco. Tune: Battle Hymn of the Republic Founded on James V, verses 1-4.] In the struggle of the ages when the people cry

God will hear the wail of sorrow, He will come upon the cloud, He will overthrow oppression, He will resist the For God is marching on.

CHORUS.

Glory, glory, hallelujahi Glory, glory, hallelujah Glory, glory, hallelujahi For God is marching on In the last days saith his servant, when the rich In the last days saith his servant, when the rich man with his gold Shall heap treasure and fine raiment that from poor he doth withhold. All his riches drawn and kept by fraud shall witness gainst his soul, When God comes marching on.

Chorus-Glory, glory, halielulah, etc. How long, O, proud and selfish ones, will ye up-hold the wrong? Oh, how long will ye oppress the peor, God's "little ones." how long?

How long will ye in selfishness imagine ye are strong?

Chorus-Glory, glory, hallelujah, etc. Ye have followed o'er the ocean; ye have crossed

Is not God marching on

Ye have followed o'er the ocean; ye have crossed the briny waves; Ye have sought to make our heritage a bond cursed land of slaves. But a sense of wrongs long suffered wakes the commonweal and saves, And God is marching on. Chorus-Glory, glory, hallelujah, etc. Ye have offered bribes and share of spells to rulers of our land; Ye have subsidized our teachers and sown lies on every hand, But the suf ring people rising now, come forth at God's command, For God still marches on. Chorus-Giory, glory, hallelujahl etc. THE TIMES understands that this hymn will be sung by the commonwealers to the tune of "Old John Brown" as they march up Pennsylvania avenue and on to the Capitol. We predict that the effect will be electrifying, as the melodious thunder of thousands of voices blent in one forever is.

Is This a Farmer's loke? Organization of a farmer's army, several undred strong, with a march to Washington as the object, and the movement confined to Virginia and Maryland, is the substance of a letter received at the Interior Department vesterday. The informant is a farmer of Fauquier county, Va., who asserts that there are well-founded rumors of a general organized novement among the farmers.

He declares that they will come to Washington to demand an explanation from Coxey ington to demand an explanation from Coxey for demanding protection from the government when the farmers have not yet taken action. Farmers, it is ciaimed, have no representation in the Ohioan's rank and file and a demand for General Coxey's reasons for the discrimination is one of the objects of the trip. The scheme is looked upon by the officials as a heax.

LEGATION OF THE UNITED STATES,

"HONOLULE, H. I., April 5, 1894.

Sin: By section 13 of act 59, "An act to provide for a constitutional convention," the following oath is required of the voter:

"I., "aged —years, a native of —, residing at —, in said district, de solemnly swear in the presence of Almighty God that I will support and bear true allegiance to the provisional government of the Hawaiian Islands, and will oppose any attempt to re-establish monarchial government in any form in the Hawaiian Islands.

There appearing to be some misunderstanding as to the effect to the oath, Hon. W. O. Smith, attorney general, makes the following "authoritative statement on the subject:

"The word "oppose in the form of the oath relates to the duffes of those taking it as voters and as delegates the farmer binding themselves in vote only for such persons as are opposed to a re-establishment of the monarchy, and the latter as members of the convention binding themselves to work in the convention sgainst the introduction of any provision in the new constitution tending to a re-establishment of the monarchy. The word resist was in the first draft of the oath and was stricken out as possibly misleading."

Inquiry having been made of me by the citizens of ithe United States residing here as to their status should they take the above oath, I respectfully ask an instruction on this point.
